2) Acts 19 – Read & Word Study/Research

- a) After reading Acts 19:1-6, is it correct to say that one can be baptized incorrectly and thus needs to be re-baptized (that is, correctly/scripturally baptized) when he/she understands the truth? (How can one read this text and think otherwise? Here was a group of believers that were baptized in water according to the baptism of John, but they were obviously baptized in John’s baptism after the Cross of Christ and thus knew nothing of the baptism mentioned in Matthew 28:18-20, as they knew nothing of the Holy Spirit. Paul did not accept their invalid baptism rather he taught them and baptized them correctly. As has been said, “One cannot be taught wrong and baptized right.” It is imperative to understand what one is doing during baptism, as this passage makes abundantly clear. Compare Acts 2:38, 22:16.)
- b) During the first century (i.e., during the time of miraculous confirmation), was the laying on of an apostles’ hands significant? (Absolutely, vs. 6)

- d) In light of Acts 19:8-10, is the popular doctrine of, “We should not discuss/argue about the Bible” a true doctrine or a false doctrine? (It is as false as can be. The idea that men cannot discuss, argue, reason, etc. about the Scriptures in order to find and know truth is ridiculous to the core. The books of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John, as well as the book of Acts make this very clear. The Devil does not want men discussing the Bible because he doesn’t want truth known. Those who are afraid to discuss truth are helping the prince of darkness. Compare: 1 Peter 3:15, 1 Thessalonians 5:21, Acts 17:1ff, etc.)
- e) What verse refers to convicted individuals burning their wicked arts/books? (Acts 19:19)

- h) What verse refers to “certain of the chief of Asia” as being friends of Paul? (Acts 19:31)
